This authentic island resort occupies its own island in the eastern Caribbean.

Lounge by the beach in your own private cabana.

Set on its own private island of 135 acres in the eastern Caribbean, this all-inclusive whole-island resort provides all the exciting possibilities of an island archipelago right outside guests' doorsteps. Palm Island is a quiet paradise where tranquility reigns; indeed, this elegant Caribbean retreat has been designed for those seeking relief from the wear and tear of everyday life.

The resort comprises just 37 Palmview rooms, Beachfront Cottages, Plantation Suites and Island Lofts, which have been designed with their island setting in mind and are complemented by public areas of thatch, bamboo and terra cotta. More than half of the resort's accommodations sit right on the white-sand beach, putting guests within easy reach of the carefully protected natural environment.

Days at Palm Island revolve around the beaches and the ocean, nature trails, watersports, and a free-form pool with waterfalls, while excursion via boat to the Tobago Cays add a dash of excitement.

Elegant evenings begin with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in the alfresco bar and end with delicious candlelit dinners in the Royal Palm restaurant or the more casual Sunset Bar & Grill.
